

Accompanying Program 2015

Tue

24.02.2015

17:00h

Grand Opening

Theater Rüsselsheim

A big welcome to Theater Rüsselsheim!

Together with sponsors, audiences and colleagues, the organizers and the entire festival team are to raise their glass to celebrate the opening of the 21st Starke Stücke festival. We look forward to the subsequent performance of Eerste Keer by Danstheater AYA from Amsterdam and will be bringing the evening to a close with music and dancing in the theater foyer.

Wed

25.02.2015

19:00h

Spanish evening

Theater Moller Haus, Darmstadt

Thu

26.02.2015

19:00h

Franco-German Reception

Theaterhaus Frankfurt

Subsequent to Urbaphonix, a musical performance in the public space by French group Décor Sonore from Paris, "Starke Stücke" together with the Franco-German Youth Organization invites you to a festive reception hosted by the international festival guests.

Fri

27.02.2015

16:00h

1st National Drama Education Day

Coinciding with the 1st National Drama Education Day, announced by Bundesverband Theaterpädagogik e.V. (BuT, National Association for Drama Education), on February 27, 2015 a local association for drama education is to be established in Hessen. All freelance & salaried drama teachers and institutions offering drama education are invited to the inaugural meeting at Schultheater-Studio Frankfurt.

In the evening there will be a performance at Gallus Theater of Heute: Kohlhaas – a musical play about power, arbitrariness and resistance. The subsequent festival get-together as of around 8.30 p.m. offers the opportunity for a further exchange of opinions with colleagues and performers in the foyer.

Sat

28.02.2015

19:30h

Beweg Dich! (Get moving!) – Presentation of the festival project and party

E-Werk, Bad Homburg

You can feel your pulse racing. Your heart is beating. You feel free. Nothing can stop you now. Your body takes control. You become one with the beat on which the movement is borne. Against a brick wall or with the flow?

Boundaries start in your head, confront you in your own body, are set by society and by your surroundings. What ways are there of overcoming obstacles, shifting, redefining or even tearing down boundaries?

Pupils from a comprehensive school, Gesamtschule am Gluckensteinweg, present their own interpretations and answers – in a dynamic, surprising and forceful way.

Art director: Leandro Kees (Performing Group, Cologne), Stefanie Kaufmann (Starke Stücke, Frankfurt), Silke Kutscher (E-Werk, Bad Homburg)

Following the presentation of "Beweg Dich!" the traditional festival party will be taking place at the E-Werk youth club with food, drinks, dancing and partying.

Tue

03.03.2015

18:00h

Presentation of "Karfunkel", the Frankfurt children's and youth theater award

For invited guests only

The Frankfurt children's and youth theater award has been presented by the City every year since 2010 as part of the "Starke Stücke" festival. It is awarded in recognition of the achievements by those of Frankfurt's children's and youth theaters that have distinguished themselves through particularly innovative production and performance concepts.

This year the award goes to choreographer Célestine Hennermann and her team for their production of miniMAX. Congratulations!

Studio showing on Mar. 4, 2015, 4.30 p.m.

Künstlerhaus Mousonturm Frankfurt, Probebühne 1
Waldschmidtstraße 4
60316 Frankfurt am Main

Wed

04.03.2015

14:00h

"Playback" – festival observers present their impressions

Theaterhaus Frankfurt

Young performers and students from this year's Next Generation program and children from our group of experts have been acting as observers of the program for several years now. Following the festival lunch with performers, organizers, workshop leaders and colleagues they share their impressions with all interested festivalgoers.